After Successful Oil

There was not a day in the trip from can Havre that the giant French liner The House committee inquiring into United States Salping Board operations, of which Representative Joseph Walsh of Massachusetts is chairman, will resume its inquiry at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The committee was in session here for three weeks before the opening of the present session of Congress.

It was announced last night that the Committee was in Island.

AMERICANS HOME

Mr. Sossidi said that most of the alleged news from Rumania, where he has spent most of his time in the last year, could be traced to German sources, whose aim was to discredit Rumania in America. The Rumanians had little sympathy with the Bolsheviki and expressed to be able to withstand any aympathy with the Boisnevik and expected to be able to withsta-d any Bolshevist attack. The oil fields were controlled chiefly by the British simply because they got into the game as early as possible after the war and the Americompanies held out.
